

Hindenburg Bares German Distress

HIS APPEAL TO PRESIDENT MADE PUBLIC

Declares Present Position Fraught With Danger to Whole World

Copyright 1931, by the Associated Press
NEW YORK, July 21.—The Associated Press here today publishes the appeal from President von Hindenburg to President Hoover which was sent to Washington by the German president on June 20. For some reason unexplained it has never been made public either in Washington or Berlin. The following is the appeal in part:

"Mr. President:
"The dire distress of the German people is not to be hidden from you. It is the highest compulsion upon me to turn to you with the extraordinary appeal.

MEASURES TAKEN
"I therefore, have put into effect, through the extraordinary powers conferred upon me by the constitution of the Reich, measures intended to safeguard the execution of the most necessary tasks of state and to maintain the possibility of life for our unemployed population. These measures cut deeply into all economic and social relations. They demand heaviest sacrifices from all parts of our population. Every possibility of improving the situation by internal measures, without relief from the outside world, has been exhausted. The economic crisis from which the entire world is suffering strikes the German people, who have been robbed of their resources through the consequences of the war, with a special violence.

"The inevitable consequence of these events must be the further serious curtailment of our economic life and an increase in the number of unemployed who already comprise more than one-third of the labor engaged in industry.

"The ability, the will to work and the discipline of the German people justify a confidence that Germany will live up to the heavy private obligations and meet the private needs which rest upon her and which can not be changed.

"In order to keep up her courage to face life and the confidence of the world in her ability to fulfill her obligations, Germany, however, is most urgently in need of relief. This relief must come immediately if disaster is not to befall us and others. Our people must be reassured of the possibility of working under conditions of life which are bearable.

"The relief which is necessary, through its material and moral effects upon the general crisis, redounds to the benefit of all countries. It would improve conditions in Germany to Germany of the internal and external position and which have been created by our distress and lack of hope.

"You, Mr. President, as representative of the great American people, hold

SWEEPING MOTION MAY GO TO HOUSE

Ryley Council Urges All Interests Cancelled

Exclusive to Edmonton Bulletin
EDMONTON, July 21.—Meeting in special session of the Ryley council today, the town council passed a resolution urging the waiving and cancelling of all interest charges of mortgages and loan companies on notes for the years 1930, 31 and 32.

The resolution in toto is "Resolved that all loan companies, mortgage companies and banks, life insurance companies, banks and implement companies do cancel and waive all interest charges of mortgages and loan companies for the years 1930, 31 and 32.

This resolution will be presented to the provincial government for consideration. The grounds for this sweeping resolution are "that the farmers of Alberta have suffered a reduction of the possibility within your hands of taking the steps for the German people and for the world by which an immediate change in the situation on freight with danger, can be brought about."

"(Signed) Von Hindenburg."

North River Claims Still Another Life

Exclusive to Edmonton Bulletin

BEAVER LEADER, July 21.—The life taken by the North River this year mounted to three with the drowning of Jack O'Connell in the Red River on Sunday. The victim, the eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. D. O'Connell, farmer of the Big Grande district, was only 19 years of age at the time of the accident.

He had left the farm to go swimming about three p.m. Sunday afternoon and when at 5 p.m. he had failed to return, the search was begun.

At an early hour Monday searchers came across the body of the young lad, who was found in the river some distance downstream. It is thought that he stepped into deep water and not being able to swim, was drowned before any help could reach him.

There were no eye witnesses to the tragedy.

Wheat Ready For Binders By End July

Exclusive to Edmonton Bulletin

PEACE RIVER, July 21.—Binders will be chinking away at the beautiful 20 acre stand of wheat on the farm of J. H. Brown, near the end of the month. This stand is the 222 Red River variety and was sown early in April. On this 20 acre plot the grain is standing in inches high and is full but with the continued torrid weather spring tilling and maturing the heads.

At the present time the farm is being operated by Bill Brown. Major school, the owner, was following which he returned to his home at Clearwater, Alberta, where he is at present acting as the local capacity of huge grain warehouse.

Fine Volume Of Butter Stored At Peace River

Exclusive to Edmonton Bulletin
PEACE RIVER, July 21.—Over ten thousand pounds of butter of the new Peace River variety are now in storage while thousands of pounds have already passed into consumption. This new enterprise got under way this spring and has been supplied an ever-open market for the local farmers' dairy products.

Flats are at present under way for the production of milk in the plant in the country to supply the milk needs of the town. This new project has met with hearty response both from the local farmers and the business men.

The plant will eliminate the milkmen who at the present time supply the town. These men are quite in line with the project and will prefer to get their milk from one main station in the community, time and effort save them more time to work the land.

Large Northern Grain Shipments Set New Records

Exclusive to Edmonton Bulletin
PEACE RIVER, July 21.—Shattering all previous records, grain shipments from the Peace River country for the crop season up to June 20 were close to the 12,000,000 bushel mark.

Total shipments of 11,848,450 bushels of all grain from August 1, 1929 to June 20, 1931, were some 500,000 bushels higher than the same period of the peak year, 1929.

Of the record breaking total this year 2,000,000 bushels of wheat. Shipments this year are about 1,000,000 bushels higher than the total of last year.

In the 1929-30 crop year ending June 30 there were 10,839,860 bushels of which 7,043,472 were of wheat shipped from the Peace River country. The 1930-31 crop year ended May 31, 1931, the carload of wheat effects had been moved to the Peace River country by the N.R.R. covering the four-month period from February 1. There were no shipments of wheat to the N.R.R. from the Peace River country in the first five months of 1931 numbered 361 carloads, inclusive of 19 in April.

ONE LINK ONLY?

Hon. Robert Rogers says the completion of the Trans-Canada highway will be one of the unemployment measures undertaken by the Dominion Government. The stretch of road to be built first, he says, is that connecting Winnipeg with the eastern provinces, which means the stretch through northern Ontario.

Mr. Rogers is very likely to know whereof he speaks, and his statements will be welcomed as strengthening the prospect that the Trans-Canada highway is in hand. There will be less satisfaction with the suggestion that attention is to be confined, for the time being, to the one link indicated. There is unemployment in other provinces than Ontario, and other links of the highway to be built. There would be active construction taking on these sections also.

ANOTHER PARTY HEARD FROM

When Premier Bennett announced that a flat tax of fifteen cents per pound would be levied upon foreign magazines entering Canada he evidently did so under the impression that the Canadian publishers would be seriously considered were the publishers of United States periodicals and the Canadian magazine publishers. The blow was aimed at the latter, but to the benefit of the latter, without regard to others who might think themselves to be affected.

But a third party—the Canadian reader of United States magazines—took prompt steps to make known that he was not merely a passive recipient of the transaction. Through the newspapers and by other means he has been protesting vigorously and persistently at the proposal to shut off this supply of reading matter and restrict him to such current literature as the Canadian publications may provide. As these readers number some hundreds of thousands of men and women, who are also voters, their protests could not be ignored.

The edict of exclusion has accordingly been withdrawn, and a graduated scale of taxation adopted which will vary with the amount of advertising matter carried by the foreign publications. The fifteen cent rule will apply only to the Canadian magazine, the exclusion of which is apparently desired in the interests of public morals rather than in the interests of the Canadian publisher.

Just how the Canadian reader of United States publications is to fare under the revised scheme will depend a good deal on how long the edict of exclusion is to be, or whether there is to be any exemption at all. Under the first proposal, magazines of a religious, scientific or educational character were to be admitted free. If, as is rather to be supposed, these exemptions still stand, and if the exempting power is exercised with a reasonable liberality, the public will have gained considerably by registering their protest against the flat tax on other kinds of magazines. If the exemptions are to disappear, and all periodicals be brought under taxation, the Trans-Canada scheme will be worse and more aggravating than the original.

NEXT YEAR'S FAIR

There is no occasion for surprise or disappointment in the fact that attendance at the fair failed by some five thousand to reach the figure of last year. On the contrary, it is a tribute to the good reputation built up in former years that the slump was only negligible. This is a time when people are naturally more thrifty, and are certain to get value for their money, whether they are looking for amusements or groceries. Had the people of the city and district been in doubt as to that point, the gate-keepers would have had a lonesome time last week.

But the attendance at the fair has never been in keeping with the importance of the event or the excellence of the exhibition. It is a reasonable proposition that in a city of 100,000 people, the fair should be so wide and well-settled a district, this outstanding event of the summer should draw twice as many people as it has.

It has been drawn on the average, and substantially larger crowds than it has drawn in the most favorable seasons. How to increase the attendance is the standing problem, and the one to which the directors of the association would do well to give attention.

One suggestion is that the price of admission to the grounds be cut to twenty-five cents, and the price of admission to the rush seats in the grand stands be cut to the same figure. Of course, that would look like throwing away revenue; at a rate that would threaten the financial stability of the enterprise. But this may be more an appearance than a reality. What would be lost at the gates could be made up in other ways, the attendance was doubled, and the value for higher rates for display exhibits; the midway and the pari-mutuels would return larger takings to the exhibition treasury. It is at least worth considering whether in this way the attendance could not be vastly increased without financial loss to the exhibition, and perhaps even gain.

A doubled attendance at the fair would mean far greater numbers of visitors drawn from outside points, to the advantage of hotels, restaurants and business houses generally; would make Edmonton in fair week "the place where town and country meet" in a more real sense than hitherto; would gain for the fair a correspondingly greater loyalty on the part of residents of the city, and a more clearly recognized place among outsiders as the most relieving point for the people of central and northern Alberta.

The standard of the fair having been well-established, the way to enlarge its usefulness and its all-round success is to make an energetic drive for "bumper" crowds next year; and one effective move would be to cut the price of admission to the grounds and the grand stand enclosure.

"Produced In Canada"

By GLEN FRANK

It is the thought underlying the work of the Producers in Canada Association, which has been prepared a series of short, snappy, and very effective, Canadian-made merchandise, which appears before the public in the form of a series of stories, the first of which appears below, given as though it is the remembrance of Canadian trade.

Statistics have shown that Canadian goods control 87 per cent of the purchases for the home and the family either directly or indirectly. Father may not know it but Mother does, and very easily, which

LIGHTER OFFERS HAVE EFFECT OF FIRMING PRICES

WINNIPEG, Man., July 21.—Lighter offers had the effect of firming prices in the wheat pit here today and yesterday. The close was 10 to 15¢ higher than yesterday. Apart from this the market was a drab affair and activity was limited in feature. July closed at 38½¢, up 1¢, while October finished at 40½¢, and December at 41½¢, each up 1¢.

Export trade did not figure as a market factor. Volume of trading was small.

Cash and course grain closed steady with prices unchanged to slightly higher.

BULLS FAIL TO GET FOLLOWING
ON WALL STREET

NEW YORK, N.Y., July 21.—The professional bullish attitude was injected in the dormant stock market today. It failed, however, to attract any following. The market was a drab affair and activity was limited in feature. July closed at 38½¢, up 1¢, while October finished at 40½¢, and December at 41½¢, each up 1¢.

Export trade did not figure as a market factor. Volume of trading was small.

Cash and course grain closed steady with prices unchanged to slightly higher.

When You Go East...
SAIL East!

DID you ever consider that, instead of taking the long route to Europe, you could sail directly to the heart of the continent? The answer is yes, if you sail East! The Canadian Navigation Division offers a direct route to Europe, with no stopovers in the United States. This is a great advantage for those who wish to reach Europe quickly and comfortably.

Two days' recreation aboard ship is good business on a pleasure trip. The Canadian Navigation Division offers a direct route to Europe, with no stopovers in the United States. This is a great advantage for those who wish to reach Europe quickly and comfortably.
